In This City.

OF WICHITA FALLS, TEX. MANY SPEECHES MADE

Will Enter Upon His Duties With Claude R. Clark, In
The First Of the Year. The Role of Toastmaster.

Rev. F. F. Walters, of Wichita Falls, Tex., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the First Christian church and will enter upon his duties the first Sunday in January. His family consists of his wife and four children and they will arrive during the holidays. He comes highly recommended as an able preacher.

Wheat Still Lower.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—Wheat values reflected stock market weakness that was associated with reports indicating a willingness by Great Britain and her allies to call for a statement of Germany's proposed terms of peace. The close was heavy 1 to 1 1/2c net lower with May at $1.66 1/2 to $1.66 3/4 and July at $1.42 1/2 to $1.42 3/4. Corn finished 3/4 off to 1/2c up, oats unchanged to 3/4 higher and provisions varying from 22 to 25 decline to a rise of 15 cents.

Noted Centenarian.

The most notable centenarian of all time, one who had more in his life than mere length of years, was Manuel Garcia, born at Zafra, in Catalonia, in 1805, died in London, on July 1, 1906, passing away at the age of 101 years and four months. He was considered the greatest teacher of singing the world has ever known, and was the inventor of the aryngoscope. On his 100th birthday he attended a banquet in his honor at the Hotel Cecil, London, in a distinguished company of musicians and scientists. He composed a speech for the occasion and read part of it, handling the manuscript to the chairman, who read the remainder of it.

ELKS ENJOY A SOCIAL SESSION

Official Visit From Deputy
Ben Marshall, of Frankfort,
The Occasion.

With Claude R. Clark, In
The Role of Toastmaster.

Deputy Ben Marshall's visit to the Elks Lodge Tuesday night was notable event. The degree work was exemplified and the officers highly complimented by Mr. Marshall. At 10 o'clock the social session began in the dining room and continued until 12 o'clock. Refreshments were served and with Claude Clark as toastmaster, speeches were made by Dr. M. W. Williams, F. W. Dabney, R. A. Cook, Chas. M. Meacham, Col. W. R. Howell, Tony Tavoni, Dr. Andrew Sargent, Ed J. Duncan and others. Hon. Ben Marshall was the last speaker, and entertained those present with a fine speech, able, eloquent and with a vein of humor.

Mr. Marshall's family consists of his wife and fifteen children. A group picture of the family given to his friend Col. Ike Hart, was shown and attracted much attention.

FAIRVIEW NOTES

Mr. Allen Davis, who was principal of the school here three years ago, is visiting friends here this week.

Miss Mary Petrie, daughter of Jno. W. Petrie, is sick at this writing.

The entertainment given Saturday night was quite a success. The manner in which the characters rendered their parts, showed the excellent ability of Mrs. Johnson, who coached them so nicely, and the trustees should be congratulated upon having secured her services as principal of the school. She has contributed largely to the social and religious life of the town as well as the educational and moral up-lift of the school. Miss Pauline Petrie gave entertaining readings. Miss Petrie is one of Fairview's favorite daughters and is quite an able reader.

Miss Daniel, the music teacher, contributed to the enjoyment of the evening by giving several instrumental solos before the play and between the acts. In spite of the cold weather there was a good attendance. Next Thursday night Miss Daniel will have her mid-term recital. There will be choruses from each of the grades in school which will illustrate the benefit of public school music. Besides the solos and duets there will be drills, vocal solos and a negro comedy given by four High School boys. Come out and enjoy music, mirth and laughter. Admission 15 cents for everybody. Beginning at 7 o'clock, sharp.

There will also be a Christmas entertainment at the Presbyterian church Friday night. A short program will be rendered, after which "Santa Claus" will take charge of the presents and have them distributed.

FAMOUS STORY NEXT MONDAY

Bryant Washburn and Marguerite Clayton Appear
In Leading Roles.

Greater than Graustark!
That's what the critics say of "The Prince of Graustark."

And "Graustark" was one of the most popular—best selling—photo-plays ever produced!

All reviewers agree on its superlative quality and assert that in this picture Essanay has to offer exhibitors a box office attraction of superior merit. It is released through Kleine-Edison-Selig-Essanay Service.

In this picture President George K. Spoor presents:

A great story.
Two stars of international reputation.

A strong supporting cast.
Capable direction.
Excellent photography.
Beautiful backgrounds.

The selling power of a book of which upward of ten millions of copies have been published.

The selling power also of the fact that it is a sequel to a great book, the picture version of which has been viewed by practically every picture patron in America.

DINNER PARTY

At Which The Ages of The Guests Averaged Over 80 Years.

On Dec. 18th, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Owen were invited to take dinner with their neighbor, Mrs. Cora Caudle, the occasion being the 53rd anniversary of their marriage. There was present also a friend, Mrs. Mary Ann Baugh, and the four old people had a most pleasant day, their combined ages being 322 years as follows:

Mr. M. V. Owen 79,
Mrs. M. V. Owen 79,
Mrs. Cora Caudle 78,
Mrs. Mary A. Baugh 86.

Mrs. Owen before her marriage on Dec. 18, 1863, was Miss Mattie Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen have two children, Mr. M. A. Owen, of this county, and Mrs. Dr. J. N. Murphey, of Paducah.

NEARING COMPLETION.

The last windows were received and put in the new Methodist church Saturday in spite of the bad weather, and the fine edifice is now completely enclosed. Some of the pews have arrived and will be promptly installed. Some of the class rooms will be equipped with the pews from the old church. The biggest job ahead is installing the new $5,000 organ, which is on the road.

SAD DEATH.

Miss Bessie Ross, hearing the same name made famous by the flag-maker Betsy Ross, died in Louisville last week. She was a twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Ross.

FORMER KENTUCKIAN

Writes About His Christian County Friends of 25
Years Ago.

Crossville, White county, Ill.
Dec. 18, 1916.

Editor Kentuckian:

Being at one time a resident of old Kentucky, my thoughts often turn back to my "Old Kentucky Home," and I am taking the liberty of writing a few lines to your paper; if you wish to print it do so, if not cast it into the waste basket.

I left Kentucky 25 years ago and have never been back since, but hope and expect some time in the future to come back. We have some Kentucky people here. "Uncle" Wilson Armstrong, an old Kentuckian, lives in Crossville. He is nearly 90 years old. Mrs. D. W. Johnson, who was a Miss Stinnett, of your town, lives in Carmi.

I often think of my old schoolmates. Many of them I suppose have passed to the great beyond. I will mention some of them I knew in days gone by. Gayle Moseley, Joe Moseley, Walter Shaw, Lee Hancock, Walter Gray, Walter Vaughn, Pearl Vaughn, Gussie Carroll, Bessie Harned and Mattie Hancock. I would like to hear from some of my old teachers. They were Miss Alice Yost, Miss Mary Trainum, (later Mrs. Carroll,) Miss Anna Edwards, (later Mrs. Parker.) I would be more than pleased to get a long Christmas letter from some of my old schoolmates.

Prices are very high in this country. The elevator where I have worked for the last 20 years has loaded 125 cars of corn this fall at prices ranging from 60 to 83 cents per bushel. Flour costs us $5.20 per hundred pounds; pork 22 cents per pound; potatoes $2.00 per bushel; beans 15 cents per pound and eggs 40 cents per dozen.
